REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The Alexander Trushnovich kidnapping allegedly involved twelve armed men, with two automobiles.
2. The abductors took their captive out of the West Sector by car, it is said, by way of Dreilinden, because that appeared the most secure route into the East Zone. The story current in West Berlin to the effect that Trushnovich was kidnapped by way of a West Berlin freight railroad station is completely untrue.
3. Trushnovich was allegedly first brought to Karlshorst. After the kidnapping was made public, however, it was realized that this was inexpedient. Since his transfer to the SSD prison in Hohenschoenhausen was out of the question, he was brought to Gruenau (southeastern Berlin) to Bruno Stahlmann's villa which is especially set up for just such purposes.
4. A press conference has been impossible up to now because Trushnovich still suffers from head wounds. Two doctors are attending him constantly.

Comment: Probably refers to Richard Stahlmann.
